

Hello Everyone,

You already know about the back alley sale tomorrow so this message is to tell you about the lovely new things that have arrived in the main store. This hot and sticky weather cries out for light clothing and bright clean colors to give you some energy and we have just what you need!

* The stunning batik dress I'm wearing in the photo is incredibly cool and breezy. It flows beautifully as you walk and felt light as air to wear - I was very glad I tried it on! The whole range is a nicely generous 'one size fits most' and as you can see the fabric is real art work. We have coordinating separates in this lovely blue combination and an equally eye-catching cherry/sand blend.

* New printed blouses by Tianello. The poppy colored one in the photo is super-soft Tencel and we have two Bemburg options - one is marine colors and the other desert colors. Bemburg, for those of you who don't know, is a luxurious fabric made mostly from cotton seeds. It is very fine, has an elegant natural drape and doesn't cling so it gives you a graceful silhouette but you can run it through the washing machine - Marvelous!

* Black-based, printed, cotton blend tees and tanks with Aloe Vera finish softener. The prints are terrific and the Aloe really does feel cool against the skin.

* Very classy chiffon jackets and ponchos to wear over a silky tank on a special occasion. We have a whole new range of prints, ranging from understated neutrals to vibrant sparkly ones. Lots of different cuts and lengths.

* Some super new cupro dresses in floral prints with coordinating solid color jackets. An empire waist makes them very flattering and the triple layered skirts overlay each other just like petals. Terribly pretty.

* A couple of new styles of Jeans from Jag and Christopher Blue, including the Ric Flair in brown twill.

* Silk jackets from Nepal that can be dressed up or down. They'd look terrific for a special occasion but it would be really nice to get lots of wear out of them by pairing them with jeans or this summer's capris. We have white or beige with black beads and a spectacular turquoise with coordinating beads and beige embroidery.

I'll leave you today with an excerpt from Hugh Prather's Little Book of Letting Go. This book is a thirty day program to 'cleanse your minds, lift your spirit and replenish your soul'. It takes all the intellectual information on how to embrace freedom and find peace and turns it into specific practices that, day by day, move us towards joy. Worth a try!

"Letting go of fear and judgment has no downside. What possible harm could come from practicing the simplicity of not having to be somebody, and of not requiring our friends and family to be other than who they are? We can cross the street without becoming a "pedestrian." We can drive to work without becoming a "commuter." We can walk the dog without becoming a "pet owner." And we can extend our hand to our child without becoming "the parent". We only need to be as we were created - effortless, present, and free. No additional history, status or attitude is required."

* Remember - if you would like to ask questions about information in this email, please call us here at the store on 207 338 5659 since we don't check this email every day.

Wishing you peace, joy and laughter,

Becky
